

These are some of the messages which Annie received after the show and in the following days:

How do they do it? Take a group of fifty young performers, aged between eight and sixteen, audition them on a Sunday, and in one week put on a show, with them knowing their dialogue, songs and dance routines. Fantastic!

Yet again you seem to have reached greater heights than ever before.

What can I say? The show on Saturday afternoon was absolutely fantastic.

Another highly successful Summer School, so my congratulations to you yet again.

(My daughter) thoroughly enjoyed it and hasn't yet stopped talking about it.

Good to see so many talented youngsters enjoying themselves, and obviously happy after a hard working week.

Having seen three of their previous productions, I have to say, this one was the best.

(My son) had a fantastic week and made lots of new friends and had a lot of new experiences.
