Be part of the Big Parade!

What are you doing at the start of the summer holidays? Want to have fun acting, dancing and singing in our production of The Music Man Junior? Well, of course you do!

On the morning of 4th July 1912, the good folk of River City Iowa cautiously welcome a stranger into their midst. Professor Harold Hill quickly sizes them up and decides that the one thing needed to stop the town's young men sliding into trouble is a boys' marching band. This, he explains, will bring harmony (quite literally) to the whole population, as he teaches their sons to play the musical instruments and wear the uniforms he will sell to them.

Only two people know that this splendid idea is unlikely to take shape. Marcellus Washburn, Harold Hill's old partner in crime, and River City's, librarian Marian Paroo, who senses that the 'Professor' is not all that he claims to be...

The Music Man Junior features loads of great characters, so we're looking for dozens of girls and boys to play their part. If you want to spend a week preparing for two performances of this funny, warm and wonderful show, call up and ask for an application pack today!

What the heck! You're welcome, glad to have you with us.
